DISTRICT OF NEVADA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

NOEL GAGE & HOWARD AWAND,

No. 2:07-CR-039-JLQ-LRL

ORDER ON PENDING MOTIONS,
SETTING MOTIONS AND TRIAL

A hearing on pending motions was held in Las Vegas, Nevada on September 26, 2007. Appearing for the Plaintiff were Steven W. Myhre, Roger W. Wenthe, and Michael Chu. The Defendant Gage appeared in person and with his attorneys, Thomas Pitaro and Pamela Johnston. The Defendant Awand appeared in person and with his attorneys William B. Terry and Linda Norvell Marquis.

The court heard from counsel on all pending motions. The court then preliminarily ruled on the motions. The final rulings are as follows:

1. The Defendants' Motions To Dismiss (C.R. 52 & 53) are Denied, subject to renewal after the introduction of the Government's evidence in chief.

2. The Defendants' Motion To Sever Trials and Counts 17 & 18 (C.R. 50 & 54) are Denied in part and Granted in part to the extent that if the Defendants are tried jointly Counts 17 & 18 shall not be tried with the underlying Counts or referenced during any joint trial. The court will hear from the Government further as to the possibility of trying the Defendants on Counts 17 & 18 following the jury verdicts on the underlying

1 counts.

2 3. The Defendants' Motion To Dismiss Counts 1-16 (C.R. 49 & 56) are Denied
3 subject to any subsequent ruling on the efficacy of the Government's evidence.

4 4. The Defendants Motions To Dismiss Counts 9-16, the alleged money
5 laundering Counts (C.R. 55), are Denied, subject to any subsequent ruling on the 6 efficacy of the Governments evidence on the underlying Counts.

7 5. The Defendant's Motion For Bill of Particulars (C. R. 57) is Denied.

8 6. The Defendants' Motions To Join (C.R. 58 & 59) are Granted.

9 7. The Government shall forthwith furnish the Defendants with all Brady &
10 Giglio material, including all Grand Jury transcripts that contain such material. This 11 Order is continuing and the Government shall deliver such additional materials as it
12 becomes aware of them.

13 8. The Government shall forthwith commence the required Henthorn research and 14 continue it on an ongoing basis. The results of this research shall be furnished to the 15 Defendants on or before December 17, 2007 and thereafter if later learned.

16 9. The court informed counsel for the Plaintiff of the so-called "Cikutovich Rule."
17 Thus, the Government shall inquire of the Government's witnesses and of any other 18 federal, state, or local officers involved in this matter as to their knowledge of any 19 impeachment, credibility, Brady or Giglio-type information pertaining to any 20 Government witness, including any informant or cooperating individuals who may be 21 witnesses. The Government shall provide the results thereof to counsel for the 3 Friday, February 8, 2008 to Wednesday, February 6, 2008 at 9 a.m.

4 11. On or before December 3, 2007, the Government shall file its Motion seeking 5 to introduce any F. R. Crim. P. 404(b) evidence not bearing directly on the charges in 6 the Superseding Indictment. The Defendants shall respond to such Motion on or before
7 December 21, 2007. Any reply by the Government shall be on or before January 7,
8 2008. If oral argument is requested on this or any other Motion, such a request shall be 9 so stated in the Motion. The court will then determine if argument will be in person or 10 telephonically.

11 12. On or before December 17, 2007, the Government shall provide all Jencks Act

17 14. On or before January 8, 2008, each party shall provide to all other parties a

20 Conference.

21 15. On or before January 8, 2008, the Defendants shall serve and file a list of and 22 copies of all trial exhibits. The Defendant Awand's list shall start with Number 2000
23 and the Defendant Gage's list shall start with Number 3000. Those Numbers shall 24 continue sequentially. Only exhibits shown on these lists may be introduced at trial,
25 absent good cause shown. On or before January 22, 2008, any opposing party shall file
26 any objection they may have as to the authenticity of any such exhibits. Rulings thereon
27 shall take place at the Pretrial Conference on February 6, 2008.

1       16. On or before January 18, 2008, the parties shall file briefs on all foreseeable
2 and unresolved substantive and evidentiary issues that may arise during trial. Responses
3 shall be served on or before January 30, 2008, and shall be heard at the Pretrial
4 Conference.

5       17. Requested jury instructions, requested jury voir dire, and trial briefs shall be 6 served and filed on or before February 5, 2008.

7       18. The Pretrial Conference and hearing on pending Motions shall commence at 8 9 a.m. on Wednesday, February 6, 2008 at 9 a.m.

9       19. The jury trials shall commence on Tuesday, February 19, 2008, at 9 a.m.

10       20. Counsel for the Defendant Awand had previously moved for a continuance
11 of the trial of this matter to June 16, 2008, and the court, on August 28, 2007, granted 12 that motion noting the purported complexity of this matter and the 49,000 pages of 13 documents allegedly produced by the Government. The Defendant Gage, at the August
14 28, 2007, hearing, and before this court on September 26, 2007, objected to the trial date
15 continuance request of the Defendant Awand. Defendant Gage has requested that his 16 trial be severed and commenced on October 29, 2007.

17       The court concludes on a preliminary basis that the trial of the two Defendants
18 named in the same Superseding Indictment which alleges, inter alia, an overall
19 conspiracy to defraud, should be together. The court further concludes that the claimed 20 complex factual and legal issues presented in this matter are such that the Motion For 21 Continuance of the Defendant Awand should be Granted. At the September 26, 2007
22 hearing counsel for Awand requested a further trial continuance to the month of July,
23 2008. The Government has indicated that it expects the trial of this matter to take some 24 6 to 8 weeks. While this court, at the September 26, 2007, hearing, expressed skepticism
25 as to that duration, it is apparent that the trial of this matter could last several weeks
26 including a relatively large number of witnesses and documents. In addition, time will 27 be needed by counsel for the Defendants to properly analyze and defend against the large

1 number of documents that has been and will be produced by the Government.

2 The court concludes pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) that the ends of justice
3 will best be served by affording counsel for the Defendants ample time to analyze the 4 documents to be furnished by the Government and to prepare for trial. However, the 5 court concludes that a continuance of the trial to July 16, 2008, is not necessary and
6 therefore has set the trial to commence on February 19, 2008. Since the two Defendants 7 are presently scheduled for a joint trial, a continuance for one defendant extends the 8 Speedy Trial clock as to both Defendants. United States v. King, 483 F. 3d 969.973 (9th
9 Cir. 2007). Therefore, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3161(h)(7) & (8)(A) the time from October
10 29, 2007, the original trial date, to February 19, 2008, the current trial date, is excluded
11 from the Speedy Trial Act time computation. In addition, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161
12 (h)(1)(F) the time from July 2, 2007, the earliest date of the filing of unresolved motions
13 to the date they are finally decided, October 2, 2007, is also excluded from the Speedy
14 Trial Act time computation.

15 The Clerk of this court shall enter this Order and forward copies to counsel.

16 DATED this 2nd day of October 2007.
